

New Hope After School - Guitar Instructor

Gary Robertson has been a performing guitar player and teacher since high school. He initially started in music as a vocalist, but became the bass player in a well-regarded band "Small Wonder" from Long Beach. Teaming for duet and trio work with John Tweed in the 1980s, eventually Gary developed a reputation as a solo fingerstyle player and songwriter. Since the 1990s he has played with and led worship teams at The Vinyard and Rosewood CRC. Gary has taught privately since his military days and with Sam Ash Music Store in Cerritos for 5 years.
